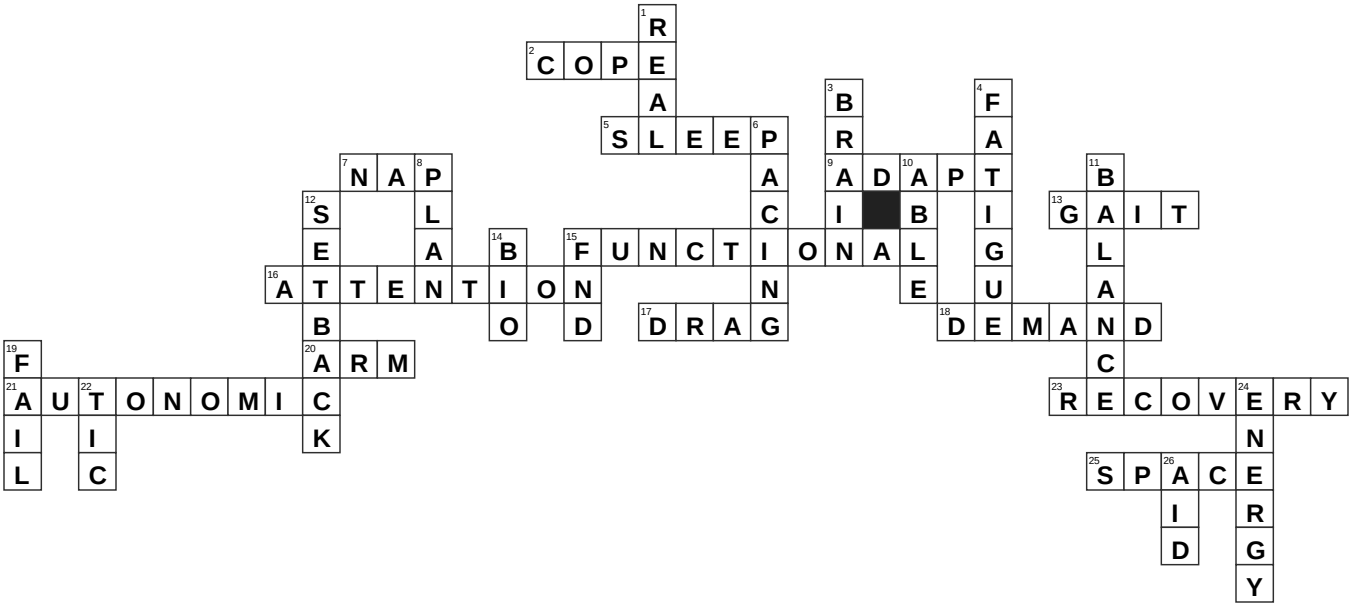
Module 1 - Functional Neurological Disorder

Answer key



Across

2. What we try to do when life refuses to behave.
5. Not getting enough of this can affect how you feel.
7. A short sleep that may help you recharge during the day.
9. Make it work better for you.
13. Medical word for the way a person walks.
15. How your nervous system is working with motor and sensory information.
16. What your brain is focusing on right now.
17. A leg may do this instead of lifting normally while walking.
18. The effort or pressure that an activity puts on you.
20. Upper body part that can be affected by weakness.
21. The nervous system that controls automatic functions such as heart rate and digestion.
23. Improvement in symptoms, function, or quality of life.
25. A supporter might offer company, help, quiet, or some ___.

Down

1. FND symptoms.
3. Wrinkly, busy and running the show.
4. When "I'm tired" feels like a serious understatement.
6. Changing activities or taking breaks to make daily life easier to manage.
8. A set of ideas for what to try and what matters most.
10. Capacity to do something.
11. What keeps you upright, even when gravity has other plans.
12. A rough period in recovery, not proof that everything before it was wasted.
14. The part of biopsychosocial that means the body and brain.
15. Functional Neurological Disorder.
19. Symptoms returning does NOT mean you did this.
22. A repeated movement or sound that is hard to hold back.
24. Available capacity is more than simply how much ___ you think you have.
26. Help with movement, safety, or independence.